OVERTURE CENTER FOR THE ARTS
MADISON

WELCOME to our fourth annual Disney Musicals in Schools Student Share Celebration! Disney Musicals in Schools is an outreach initiative that develops sustainable theater programs in urban elementary schools. Each of the schools here today has spent many weeks rehearsing and performing a musical at their school. Thank you for joining us for this special celebration, and enjoy the show!

Host: Ida Balderrama-Trudell, Ed.D

Ida Balderrama-Trudell, Ed.D. is an experienced social justice, diversity, equity and inclusion professional with over 20 years of experience in higher education spaces. She has created, facilitated and participated in a wide variety of workshops, trainings and conferences related to social justice, diversity, equity and inclusion during her tenure at UW-Madison and in her current role with Overture Center for the Arts as Director of Equity & Innovation. Ida has served as a special assistant and chief of staff to senior leadership, director of multiple centers/departments, an advisor and a student. Her approach to DEI and social justice is rooted in human development and growth mindset. Her identities as a queer Latina, mom, partner and Girl Scout leader are integral to her work in DEI, and she is never afraid to have the hard conversations. She is also an avid reader, lover of all kinds of music and nature, Auntie Ida to a niece and nephew, mom to two amazing young women and partner to a local business owner.

Welcome Ida Balderrama-Trudell,
Director of Equity & Innovation
